

18-20 May 2016

Provisional Programme

Day 1: Wednesday, 18 May 2016

09.00 - 09.45	Registration Welcome with Coffee/Tea
09.45	Official welcome 'r-atics 5 by Hanno Brand, director Fryske Akademy Leeuwarden
10.00	Gary Taylor-Raebel (University of Essex) Germanic *r revisited
10.30	Marjoleine Sloos (Fryske Akademy) One rule, two frequency effects
11.00 - 11.20	Coffee/Tea Break
11.20	Invited speaker: Odette Scharrenborg (Radboud Universiteit Nijmegen) Lexically-guided perceptual learning on the /l/-/r/ continuum: adaptation to variability in perception
12.20	Evan-Gary Cohen (Tel-Aviv University) The story of /r/: children's edition (in Hebrew)
12.50 - 14.15	Lunch
14.15	Nanna Haug Hilton, Eva Smidt, Sophie van der Meulen (University of Groningen), Laura Rosseel (University of Leuven) Using IAT to measure the association between [ɹ] and female speakers
14.45	Jane Stuart-Smith (University of Glasgow), Eleanor Lawson (Queen Margaret University, Edinburgh) A real-time study of postvocalic /r/ lenition in Scottish English
15.15 - 15.35	Coffee/Tea Break
15.35	Cesko Voeten (Leiden University) Watching Dutch change Diphthongization and diphthong neutralization in contemporary spoken Dutch
16.05	Pitches Posters
16.45 - 18.15	Poster session See page 4 for a list of poster presentations Drinks
19.30	Dinner

Day 2: Thursday, 19 May 2016

09.00 - 09.45	Welcome with Coffee/Tea
9.45	Ariel Silva, Fábio Couto (LALLI/UnB, CAPES), Jorge Lucero (UnB, CNPq), Ana Suelly Cabral (LALLI/UnB, CNPq) The uvularization of the Proto-Tupi-Guarani *r > ʁ in Avá-Canoeiro language (Tupí-Guaraní)
10.15	Haike Jacobs (Romance department, Radboud University, Nijmegen) Liquid dissimilation and hiatus resolution in Latin phonology
10.45 - 11.05	Coffee/Tea Break
11.05	Invited speaker: Cédric Gendrot (Université Sorbonne Nouvelle Paris 3) Aerodynamic, articulatory and acoustic realization of French and German /R/.
12.05	Alba Arias (University of Massachusetts-Amherst) Rhotic realizations of the Puerto Rican community in Massachusetts
12.35 - 16.30	Lunch Cultural program
16.30	Willem Visser (Fryske Akademy / University of Groningen) <r> + coronal consonant in Frisian: orthography or phonology?
17.00	Sylvain Navarro (Université Paris Diderot, CLILLAC) Rhoticity in Boston: results from a PAC survey and phonological modeling
17.30	Koen Sebregts (Utrecht University), Hans Van de Velde (Fryske Akademy), Roeland Van Hout (Radboud University Nijmegen) Changing factors in the rise of approximant r in Dutch
19.30	Dinner

Day 3: Friday, 20 May 2013

09.00 - 09.45	Welcome with Coffee/Tea
9.45	Rias van den Doel (University of Utrecht) Erroneous /r/? Native-speaker perceptions of realisations of /r/ in Dutch-accented English
10.15	Robert Lennon, Rachel Smith, Jane Stuart-Smith (Glasgow University Laboratory of Phonetics) Derhoticisation in Glasgow: Listeners perceptually adapt after short term exposure
10.45 - 11.05	Coffee/Tea Break
11.05	Invited speaker: Michael Proctor (Macquarie University Sydney) Patterns of rhotic articulation and distribution: new insights from real-time MRI
12.05	Daniel Asherov, Evan-Gary Cohen (Tel-Aviv University) ʁ-Substitution: where percepts, proximity and prosody meet
12.35 - 14.00	Lunch
14.00	Chiara Meluzzi (Free University of Bozen/Bolzano), Chiara Celata (Scuola Normale Superiore, Pisa) Classifying rhotic variants: a single speaker study of intra-speaker variation
14.30	Eleanor Lawson, James M. Scobbie (Queen Margaret University, Edinburgh), Jane Stuart-Smith (University of Glasgow) Articulatory variation in Central-Belt Scottish English /r/: summary and synthesis
15.00	Iris Rennie, Thaís Cristóvão Silva (Universidade Federal de Minas Gerais) Lenition mechanisms in the rhotics of Brazilian Portuguese
15.30	Coffee/Tea Break
15.50	Didier Demolin (Université Sorbonne Nouvelle Paris 3) The phonetics and phonology of syllabic rhotics in Lendu
16.20	Conclusion/Perspectives
17.00	Closing

Posters:

01	Adrian Leemann ¹ , Dieter Studer- Joho ² , Stephan Schmid ² , Marie- José Kolly ²	¹ University of Cambridge ² University of Zurich	Perceptual coding reliability of realizations of /r/ in the context of crowdsourced Big Data
02	Eleanor Lawson, Natasha Lindley, James M. Scobbie,	Queen Margaret University, Edinburgh	An ultrasound and lip-camera investigation of Anglo-English prevocalic /r/
03	Susana Rodrigues ¹ , Fernando Martins ² , Luís Jesus ³	¹ School of Health Sciences, University of Algarve ² Faculty of Letters of University of Lisbon and CLUL ³ School of Health Sciences (ESSUA) and Institute of Electronics and Informatics Engineering of Aveiro	Rhotics in European Portuguese: the variability in phonetic realisations
04	Karrie Kucker ¹ , Sarah Lockenvitz ² , Martin Ball ³	¹ University of Louisiana at Lafayette ² Missouri State University ³ Linköping University, Sweden	Is there evidence for the distinction between consonantal-/r/ and vocalic-/r/ in American English found in the speech pathology literature?
05	Martin Ball, Nicole Müller	Linköping University Sweden	The phonemic status of the rhotics in modern standard Welsh
06	Silvia Brandão	Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro	Rhotics in the urban variety of Portuguese of São Tomé
07	Maria Paola Bissiri, James M. Scobbie	CASL Research Centre, Queen Margaret University, Edinburgh	/r/-sandhi in English-accented German and in English in relationship to prosodic structure and word-initial glottalisation: an ultrasound tongue imaging study
08	Etske Ooijsaar	Meertens Instituut	Fricativization of rhotics in a Dutch dialect
09	Tabita Toparlak, Didier Demolin	Université de la Sorbonne Nouvelle Paris 3	A phonetic study of Armenian rhotics
10	Stephen Nichols	University of Manchester	An acoustic study of the Turkish rhotic
11	Han Hu	Leiden University Center for Linguistics	A sociophonetic study on postvocalic r in Beijing Mandarin: Evidence from the variation of /ər/
12	Sylwester Jaworski	Szczecin University	Positional strength hierarchy: a case study of Polish /r/
13	Jonathan Harrington, Philip Hoole, Taja Stoll	LMU, Germany	Tongue tip velocity and stiffness in Russian trills and laterals
14	Reza Falahati	Scuola Normale Superiore di Pisa	The distribution of allophonic variants of rhotics in Persian
15	Deepthi Gopal		Voice and sonorancy in Turkic rhotics
16	Alex Turner	Cornell	R as trigger of vowel rounding in Eberswalder German: the phonology and phonetics
17	Benjamin Storme	MIT	R-deletion in French and Haitian: testing the perceptual hypothesis